

AMS TRAINING COURSES SURVEY

Increased scrutiny of macadamia production practices, rising costs, low prices and new R&D outcomes, all mean it is important for growers and their staff to be well trained and competent.

The AMS is interested in understanding the training needs of its members and where we might be able to assist. If you could spend a few minutes completing this survey, it will help the AMS help you get the training you want and need. Thank you.

NAME: _____

ADDRESS: _____

EMAIL: _____ PHONE: _____

Please indicate the appropriate industry sector that you belong to.

Farm Staff Farm Owner Researcher Marketer

Processor Service Provider Other _____
(Please indicate)

Please indicate the topics you are interested in.

OH&S	<input type="checkbox"/>	Pest & Disease Management	<input type="checkbox"/>
Farm Safety	<input type="checkbox"/>	Top working & Grafting	<input type="checkbox"/>
Quality Assurance	<input type="checkbox"/>	Tree Nutrition	<input type="checkbox"/>
Approved Supplier (NSW)	<input type="checkbox"/>	Harvesting & Quality Management	<input type="checkbox"/>
Chemical User	<input type="checkbox"/>	Tree Training & Canopy Management	<input type="checkbox"/>
Kernel Assessment	<input type="checkbox"/>	Orchard Design & Varieties	<input type="checkbox"/>
Confined Spaces	<input type="checkbox"/>	Sprayer Calibration	<input type="checkbox"/>
Quad Bike Safety	<input type="checkbox"/>	Other: _____

(Please specify)

What type of training are you looking for?

Training that leads to a recognised qualification

And/Or (you can tick both)

Short Courses and Workshops

Would you prefer?

1 and 2 day course held on weekdays

Or

1 and 2 day course held on weekends

Or

After hours, evening course over several weeks

Please fax, 02 6622 4932 or email back to admin@macadamias.org

A profitable & sustainable industry supplying quality Australian macadamias for a global market